

Let's Make Bullying Extinct

The importance of taking action to stop bullying.

The dinosaur era fascinates most children and this enthralling show includes many different types of these pre-historic creatures. Interesting facts about dinosaurs will be learnt along the way.

This story revolves around “Tiny Tim” the smallest dinosaur who is constantly bullied by the fiercest of all “Tyrannosaurus Rex”. After a mighty rock fall that finds this large aggressive dinosaur trapped in a cave, it is Tiny Tim that plucks up all his courage and takes the gap to save the Big Bully. He manages to coordinate his rescue, with help from various other dinosaurs and as a result the audience will be encouraged to “Make Bullying Extinct”.

Vibrant songs and music create a dynamic atmosphere where audience participation is enjoyed by all - the “Dino Rap” being a favourite!

A delightful finale will see “The Flintstones” take to the stage with a reminder of the importance of always being obedient.
